IL BAOBAB

“Il Baobab” is a cultural association founded in 1994 dedicated to the promotion of multiculturalism and the draft articles from developing countries. It does not do integration, but speaks about integration. Its purpose is to raise awareness, especially in schools initially, how people live on the other side of the world, this also with theater performances and photo exhibitions. It promotes integration also promoting the crafts of the Southern Hemisphere, the market “fairtrade”, which counteracts exploitation, especially by children, and also financing remote adoptions and Italian language courses for refugees in Italy.

GHETTO OUT - CASA SANKARÁ

"Here we take refuge slaves who leave the ghetto" .
There lives a diverse community from Senegal, Morocco, Egypt, Cameroon, Benin and Ivory Coast. The company "Fortore", for all "Casa Sankara", is the legal alternative to the ghetto. "From the barracks at "Casa Sankara" is a dignity and legality path. From here on, it is a process of integration."

CeLIM

The logo for CeLIM features a stylized green globe in the background. A hand is shown holding a small plant, symbolizing growth and care. The word 'CeLIM' is written in a large, bold, blue font across the middle of the globe. Below the globe, the words 'impact to change' are written in a light green, cursive font.

CeLIM is a non-governmental organization founded in Milan in 1954. CeLIM is present in Africa and the Balkans, where through the work of international volunteers and in collaboration with local authorities and staff, manages projects of cooperation from the socio-sanitary field to that of education, from agriculture to microcredit. In Italy, it runs education activities and promotes labor camps at the realities of the countries in which it operates.
